All of this is on account of the fact that Joe, will be married at Hansas City on that day. The bride to be is Miss Laura Mulleo, a charming young lady of that city, who is well known here on account of her frequent visits to relatives in this city.—St. Joseph Gazette, Nov. 22, 1892. Joe is well known here, having at one time resided here with his parents; in fact, if we remember correctly, he first saw the light of day on this y, he first saw the light of day up this city. Although a little in advance, THE SENTINEL unites with his many friends here in extending to him and his bride, many wishes for their prosperity and happiness through life.

The young boys of Oregon have inaugurated a new game called the "Wood Sawing Bee," and we must confess that it is one of the most sensible and healthful games, we have had come under our observance. One can play at the game, but the more engaged in the game, the larger the results and enjoyment derived from it. The game is played as follows: Each boy provides himself with buck and saw, and they so from house to house where each
